

My son is Austin Gray

My son is Austin Gray

He has been in a

Washing Machine

Sorted by Color

Label stamped

for Care and Handling

Separated to a

School for other

similar fabrics

Treated with different

stain releasers and chemicals

He's been washed in the wrong temperature for a while

I pray he will be noticed as different for

The Beauty, The Good Stuff

The Colors, and Amazing Design

Is it possible? Could it be?

Austin Gray is a boy not an item will be a man full of Hope, Peace and Joy?

Awesome is the friend

Who believes and says

"You Can"

My soul to you Baby,

Mommie Marina
